

OCAT partnered with the LBGTRC for an INTERCULTURAL TRAINING for "MSU's Retail Services Fall Kick-Off."

OCAT's inaugural Leadership Institute featured several local community partners including, Mr. Fathy Shetiah, President of 7C Lingo.

OCAT and the LBGTRC host the annual SPARTAN REMIX at the start of each academic year. This cultural festival unites diverse communities in a celebration of art, music, and culture.

The photos chosen for this year's holiday greeting card feature the many on and off campus relationships built with OCAT. We appreciate your commitment toward student success!

Season's Greetings 2015
Office of Cultural & Academic Transitions
www.ocat.msu.edu

OCAT's 13th Annual Thanksgiving Fellowship dinner is a collaborative effort with RHS, REHS, CRU Latino Student Org, MSS, OISS, and MSU Neighborhoods

OCAT's Success Series, featuring Dr. Eric Thomas aka "ET, The Hip Hop Preacher," is a weekly seminar helping students understand what it takes to be successful.